

A Song of Labor

B. F. Griffeth
(1852-1936)

Benjamin F. Griffeth (1852-1936) was born in Ohio. He taught vocal music in various locations including Chrisman, Illinois, in Iowa, and at Heidelberg University in Tiffin, Ohio. He became a pastor in the Baptist Church and served at churches in Medina and Granville, Ohio, and was pastor at West End Baptist Church and West Lynchburg Baptist Church in Virginia. His wife Alice also wrote music.

Whom shall we call our heroes?
To whom our praises sing?
The pampered child of fortune?
The titled lord or king?
They live by other's labor,
Take all and nothing give;
The noblest types of manhood,
Are they who work to live.

*Then honor to our workmen,
Our hardy sons of toil;
The heroes of the workshop,
And monarchs of the soil!*

For many barren ages,
Earth hid her treasures deep;
And all her giant forces
Seemed bound as in a sleep.
Then labor's "Anvil Chorus"
Broke on the startled air,
And lo! the earth in rapture
Laid all her treasures bare.

The Grand Almighty Builder,
Who fashioned out this earth,
Hath tamped his seal of honor
On labor, from her birth.
In every angel flower
That blossoms from the sod,
Behold, the master touches
The handiwork of God!

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
