

Peacefully slumber,
my own
darling son

Oliver King
(1855-1923)

Oliver Arthur King (1855-1923) was born in London. He studied under Sir Joseph Barnaby as an articled pupil and under William Henry Holmes. He then studied piano at the Leipzig Conservatory 1874-77 and toured Germany as a concert pianist. Returning to England, he was appointed pianist to the Princess Louise and traveled to Canada in that capacity. He performed concert tours in the US, UK, and Holland. He was Choirmaster at St. Anne's Church, Soho, and later musical director at St. Mary's, Marylebone. He composed a symphonic poem, concertos, a concert overture, several chamber works, cantatas, a Te Deum, many piano pieces and organ pieces, an album of duets for soprano and alto, songs and part-songs.

Peacefully slumber, my own darling son;
Close thy dear eyelids and sweetly sleep on;
All things lie buried in silence profound.
Sleep— I will scare e'en the gnats floating round.

'Tis now, my dearest, thy life's early May—
Ah! but tomorrow is not as today.
Trouble and care round thy curtains shall soar;
Then, child, thou'lt slumber so sweetly no more.

Angels of heaven, as lovely as thou,
Float o'er thy cradle and smile on thee now.
Later, when angels around thee shall stray,
'Twill be to wipe but thy teardrops away.

Peacefully slumber, my own darling son,
I'll watch by thy bedside till dark night is gone;
Careless how early, how late it may be,
Mother's love wearies not, watching o'er thee.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
