W. A. Ward
(1881)

Louis Arthur Russell (1854-1925) was born in Newark, New Jersey, and studied voice with the English tenor, William Shakespeare (1849-1931). He taught voice and was director of the Newark New Jersey College of Music, director of the Metropolitan Schools of Musical Art at Carnegie Hall, and conductor of the Schubert Vocal Society. He was known as a recitalist, conductor and author of numerous books on the art of singing including "The Commonplaces of Vocal Art; A Plain Statement of the Philosophy of Singing, in a Series of Informal Chats with Vocalists, Teachers, Students," "English Diction for Singers and Speakers," and "The embellishments of music: a study of the entire range of musical ornaments from the time of John Sebastian Bach."

SHAME upon you, Robin,
Shame upon you now!
Kiss me would you? with my hands
Milking the cow?
Daisies grow again,
Kingcups blow again,
And you came and kissed me milking the cow.

Robin came behind me,
Kissed me well I vow;
Cuff him could I? with my hands
Milking the cow?
Swallows fly again,
Cuckoos cry again,
And you came and kissed me milking the cow.

Come, Robin, Robin,
Come and kiss me now;
Help it can I? with my hands
Milking the cow?
Ringdoves coo again,
All things woo again,
Come behind and kiss me milking the cow!

From "Queen Mary"
Alfred, Lord Tennyson (1809-1892)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
